Prayer of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
 I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
 I love You above all things,
 and I desire to receive You into my soul.
 Since I cannot at this moment
 receive You sacramentally,
 come at least spiritually into my heart.
 I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
 Never permit me to be separated from You.
 Amen.

CONGRATULATIONS!

DEVOTION TO ST. MARY MAGDALENE

FEAST DAY JULY 22

After Magdalene was converted to penitence the Lord bestowed such great grace upon her that after the Blessed Virgin no woman could be found to whom greater reverence should be shown in this world and greater glory in heaven. (Bl. Humbert of Romans)

St. Mary Magdalene is known as the Apostola Apostolorum, the Apostle of the Apostles, because of her role in the accounts of the events surrounding the Resurrection. As Dominicans we seek to imitate her great faith and zeal in proclaiming the Good News of the Lord. Yet, a further connection can be established that links this saint, regarded as a patroness of the Order, to the Dominican family.

In the thirteenth century, great efforts were put forth in France, Italy, and Germany to convert women who led sinful lives. When such conversions were made, bishops grouped these women together into communities who took St. Mary Magdalene as their patroness. In Germany, these communities of women were given the Constitutions of the Dominican Nuns and incorporated into the Dominican Order.

In 1286, Charles II turned the Dominican Order toward devotion to St. Mary Magdalene. In 1297, the feast of St. Mary Magdalene was celebrated with solemnity throughout the Order, as the General Chapter of Bologna had recommended.

Why Mary Magdalene? Dominicans strive to be apostles, preaching the gospel of Christ, and so draw their inspiration from her who was so closely associated with Christ and the early history of the Order. Further, it seems that St. Mary Magdalene, in tradition and in literature, is constantly endowed with three characteristics: she is the converted sinner, she is the

MARRIAGE CONFERENCE

TOGETHER IN HOLINESS

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 8:45 AM – 4:00 PM

Church of the Immaculate Heart of Mary
1040 Alameda de las Pulgas, Belmont

Save the date for the 5th annual “Together in Holiness” marriage conference. This one-day conference includes dynamic presentations as well as Mass, Eucharistic Adoration, Reconciliation, and an opportunity to learn about diocesan and local ministries. The conference includes Mass celebrated by Archbishop Salvatore J. Cordileone; and the speakers are Damon Owens, Fr. Cameron Faller, Fr. Kyle Faller, and Joshua Bitting, PhD (cand.)

contemplative soul and she is the herald of the Resurrection. These characteristics powerfully describe the preaching office and thus our Dominican life. How can one speak of the mercy of God if one has not experienced it oneself? How can one speak of God without speaking with God?

The life of St. Mary Magdalene as portrayed in the four Gospels serves as a model and a reminder not only for Dominicans, but also for all Christians, that to be fruitful apostles we must first be faithful disciples. In order to hear the call of Christ and follow it unreservedly, we must undergo a conversion of heart. As a sinner-turned-saint, Mary Magdalene’s life testifies that allowing the reality of our sinfulness to keep us from our vocation to follow Christ is a mistake. We see in this woman that Jesus calls, that Jesus heals, that Jesus brings the true freedom which enables her to embrace her vocation to holiness. We are inspired to embrace Him in that same freedom.

The interior freedom won for us by Christ leads to the freedom of self-giving. St. Luke counts Mary Magdalene among those who provided for Jesus out of her means (cf. Luke 8:3). St. Mary Magdalene shows us that the only proper response to the limitless love of Christ is to love without limit in return. She places every gift at the service of Christ and His Kingdom, returning love for love.

Were you taught that it is impolite to discuss politics and religion in mixed company? Our nation is soul weary from uncivil discourse. In this workshop we'll return to our roots, and our root words, actively studying what we say it means to be a citizen in our United States. For example, to com-pro-mise means to be together for the mission! Catholic means uni-versal. Oneness is our name. How can a conscious Catholic faith lift us above partisan divides and contribute to a more perfect union?

Join Dominican Father and best-selling author Nathan Castle for a spiritual workshop on Saturday August 8th. A recording will be made for those who cannot attend and available for a short time afterwards.

Our regular Fifth Sunday collections at Church have not been taking place due to the COVID19 pandemic. The need is great for the people that we serve who have been unable to work due to the pandemic. We have had many requests for rent. We have continued to visit our people by phone and have been sending them food vouchers by mail. We only request donations quarterly and have been unable to do that because the church has been closed. The next 5th Sunday collection is August 29-30, but you can always donate now through the St. Raymond website (<http://straymondmp.org/donate>) or by making a check payable to the St. Raymond SVdP and mail it to the parish office at 1100 Santa Cruz Avenue, Menlo Park, CA, 94025. Any assistance you can give us would be appreciated at this time. Thanks in advance for your help.

VISION STATEMENT St. Raymond Parish is a family. As disciples of Jesus, we are “children of God” and “brothers and sisters in Christ.” Jesus himself says, “Whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother, and sister, and mother” (Matthew 12:50). We welcome all to belong to our Catholic family and to inherit with us in Christ the mission to preach the Gospel!

MISSION STATEMENT St. Raymond Parish is a community united by our Catholic Faith as disciples of Jesus Christ. We seek communion with God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit through ongoing personal and communal conversion to Christ and a deeper commitment to the mission Jesus gives each of us to preach the Gospel. The sacred scriptures and sacraments of the Church sustain us. We dedicate ourselves to Truth and strive to grow in love of God and neighbor through community, prayer, study, and service, as we work by grace to build up in one another and share freely with others the abundance of magnificent gifts God has given.
