GOD MOMENTS

Early this year, some blood test results caused me to undergo a battery of medical procedures – some very invasive and extremely painful. Subsequently, almost exactly at the beginning of Lent, I was told I suffered from multiple myeloma, a bone marrow cancer.

The diagnosis was not very hopeful and was completely unexpected. From the moment I received the news, I placed myself entirely into the hands of God. I prayed for strength and courage to accept and deal with whatever awaited me. I asked Jesus to help me carry my cross and to be allowed to use my life to share the Gospel news and to help others carry their crosses.

Throughout, my oncologist was presented with “atypical” test results. On Good Friday, after having received the Sacrament of Healing and Sacrament of Reconciliation, I underwent a further procedure, which was hoped to provide the necessary information to develop a treatment plan. Again, I placed myself into God’s care, and prepared for the worst. Other tests continued....

Finally, on April 19, I had the long-awaited video conference with the oncologist, fully expecting confirmation of the multiple myeloma diagnosis and possible treatment plan. I slept peacefully the night before; I had accepted whatever God’s plan for me was to be.

Instead of a “death sentence”, I truly underwent a Resurrection experience – I was told I do NOT have multiple myeloma but rather have reactive neutrophilia. I will need further medical interventions, but the Lord answered prayers and is allowing me to devote my remaining life to sharing the Gospel message and to serve others by helping them carry their crosses.

I am filled with gratitude and wonder at the way I was allowed to experience the mystical passion, death, and resurrection of Jesus in my own life. With the grace of God, I hope to devote my life to sharing the Good News and to serve others in the name of the Risen Christ.

DOMINICAN CORNER

ST. DOMINIC INSPIRES CHRISTIANS TO BE 'MISSIONARY DISCIPLES,' POPE SAYS

VATICAN CITY – St. Dominic de Guzmán's zeal for preaching the Gospel remains an example in today's world in the Catholic Church's mission to spread the Good News, Pope Francis said.

Marking the 800th anniversary of the death of St. Dominic, the pope said in a letter dated May 24 that the founder of the Dominican order not only "responded to the urgent need of his time" through preaching, but by also giving a "convincing witness" to holiness.

"In our own age, characterized by epochal changes and new challenges to the church's evangelizing mission, Dominic can thus serve as an inspiration to all the baptized, who are called, as missionary disciples, to reach every 'periphery' of our world with the light of the Gospel and the merciful love of Christ," he said.

The letter, which was sent to Dominican Father Gerard Francisco Timoner, master general of the order, was released by the Vatican May 24.

In it, the pope said St. Dominic's "great call was to preach the Gospel of God's merciful love" and his concern for "those experiencing material and spiritual poverty" laid the foundation of the Dominican order and its mission.

"The Gospel message of our inalienable human dignity as children of God and members of the one human family challenges the church in our own day to strengthen the bonds of social friendship, to overcome unjust economic and political structures, and to work for the integral development of every individual and people," he said.

He also expressed his hope that the Dominican Order of Preachers continues to be "in the forefront of a renewed proclamation of the Gospel" that speaks to the hearts of all men and women and "awaken in them a thirst for the coming of Christ's kingdom of holiness, justice and peace!"

Along with St. Francis, the pope added, St. Dominic knew that the preaching of the Gospel in both word and deed also required the establishment of an ecclesial community "in fraternal unity and missionary discipleship."

Recalling the many saints belonging to the order, including St. Catherine of Siena, St. Martin de Porres and St. Rose of Lima, Pope Francis remembered those who also gave their lives for the Gospel.

"In this anniversary year, we cannot fail to remember those members of the Dominican family whose martyrdom was itself a powerful form of preaching," he said.

On May 29, 2021, the cloistered Dominicans Nuns at Corpus Christi Monastery will celebrate their Centennial Jubilee.

In 1921, by invitation of Archbishop Edward J. Hanna of San Francisco and Father Arthur Laurence McMahon, O.P., prior provincial of the Western Dominican Province, a small group of Dominican nuns left their cloister of Corpus Christi Monastery in New York. They brought Dominican cloistered life and perpetual adoration to the West Coast by beginning a new monastery in Menlo Park.

Seeking the face of

for the salvation of souls.

During Laudato Si' week earlier this month, Pope Francis invited us into a celebration of God's creation. He called on us to think about the world we want to live in and leave for future generations and act now together.

How can we, the Church, respond?

Be grateful to God for His precious gifts in nature and develop a deep respect for the resources we use, especially water.

As California enters another serious drought, we continue to focus on water. Last week you learned that we save a lot of water just by turning off the faucet when we brush our teeth but how about also taking shorter showers?

More Actions:

- Only run full loads in the the dishwasher or washing machine.
- Use cold water for washing rather than hot or warm water.
- Fix household leaks that can add up to gallons of water lost every day.
- Wash the car with water from a bucket, or go to a car wash that recycles their water.

Pray:

Father God, Lord Jesus Savior, Blessed Spirit through whom we cry, "Abba, Father", thank you that we are your adopted children, joint heirs with Christ Jesus. Thank you that you are with us always, until the end of the age.

Help us to always be led by your spirit. Lord God, Creator of heaven and earth, you made us in your image and as stewards of all creation; open our minds and touch our hearts so that we may attend to your gift of creation. Help us to be conscious that our common home belongs not only to us but to all future generations, and that it is our responsibility to preserve it. Help us to feel interconnected to all your creatures and fill us with awe and gratitude for the earth.

VISION STATEMENT St. Raymond Parish is a family. As disciples of Jesus, we are “children of God” and “brothers and sisters in Christ.” Jesus himself says, “Whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother, and sister, and mother” (Matthew 12:50). We welcome all to belong to our Catholic family and to inherit with us in Christ the mission to preach the Gospel as we pray-serve-socialize in His Name.

MISSION STATEMENT St. Raymond Parish is a community united by our Catholic Faith as disciples of Jesus Christ. We seek communion with God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit through ongoing personal and communal conversion to Christ and a deeper commitment to the mission Jesus gives each of us to preach the Gospel. The sacred scriptures and sacraments of the Church sustain us. We dedicate ourselves to Truth and strive to grow in love of God and neighbor as we pray-serve-socialize together, and work by grace to build up in one another and share freely with others the abundance of magnificent gifts God has given.

PRAYERS FOR THE SICK As a parish community we pray for the sick among us, including: Balvina Gonzalez, Bernice Corcoran, Celeste Green, Diane Mojtehed, Emmanuel Barbariol, Janice Hagy, Lynn Bacon, Modesta Cintron, Noni & Penny Bantug, William Cintron, those afflicted with the coronavirus, the homebound, and those who wish not to be named. Please contact the parish office if you wish to have a name added to this list.
