Poinsettias are now on sale IN PERSON after this weekend's Masses.

Names will be published in a bulletin in January. Proceeds will go toward Christmas decorations.

GIVING: ONLINE AND IN PERSON

eGiving provides an opportunity to simplify your stewardship donations through secure automatic giving. You can pay with a credit/debit card or your checking or savings account. Schedule or update recurring donations at straymondmp.org/giving.

CHRISTMAS EVE & CHRISTMAS DAY PARKING

LDS Parking Lot: The Church of Jesus Christ Latter-Day Saints (LDS), aka the Mormon Church, with whom we share a fence, has graciously allowed us to use their parking lot during our Christmas liturgies.

If you are able-bodied, please park in the LDS lot and walk past Arbor House, the rectory where the Dominicans live, to the field where the outdoor Masses will be held. This will help save the closer spaces for those whose physical needs don't allow them to walk very far.

One-way traffic: If you are parking in the St. Raymond lot, please use the Arbor Road entrance (by the school), and exit on Santa Cruz.

Please be cautious when driving and watch out for pedestrians.

EXPERIENCED GOD RECENTLY?

We would love to add brief, personal, parishioner stories to our weekly bulletin! Titled "God Moments," these short reflections will help our parish family get to know one another better. If you have been blessed by a special grace recently, received an answer to prayer, or experienced a moment of divine peace, please consider sharing it by emailing your "God Moment" to bulletin@straymondmp.org.

4 HYGIENE KITS CREATED FOR HOMELESS

The seventh grade confirmation class students put together hygiene kits for the homeless on Sunday, December 5th. The students experienced times when they did things with their families to help the homeless, including providing meals. We discussed ways that we all can do something to help others, including something as simple as looking directly into the eyes of someone homeless and saying hello. Small gestures such as these are ways we can show love and respect for others. The hygiene bags were delivered to the Opportunity Center in Palo Alto. The Opportunity Center has a wide range of services for individuals and families who are homeless or very poor in addition to 88 affordable apartments.

Cecilia & Rachel, 7th grade Catechists.

LETTER FROM BR. DAVID

Dear St. Raymond Parish Community,

First of all, thank you. Truly, from the bottom of my heart, thank you. It has been a delight and joy to be a part of the wonderful parish community that is St. Raymond. I am edified and heartened by the presence of such faith-filled and wonderful men and women of God. You have been incredibly supportive and generous to me and the friars who minister at the parish. Thank you.

Thus, it is with a heavy heart, that I say good-bye. After careful discernment, God has made it clear to me that the road of a Dominican and a priest is not my vocation. Though I wrestled with this decision, I know that God is calling me to a different path. As to what that specific path entails, I await with the patience that marks the Advent season.

In your charity, I ask for your prayers. I ask that you continue to pray for many and good vocations to the Province and the Church. I ask that you continue to bear good fruit for the Church and be the wonderful living testaments of faith that I have been privileged to glimpse and journey with. Please know of my prayers for all of you and I pray that, God willing, we will cross paths in this life or at least in the next.

Thank you and God bless you.

David Woo

PEACE OF EARTH

In the first reading from the prophet Micah today, we hear the promise that from Bethlehem, too insignificant to be among the clans of Judah, shall come forth one who is to be ruler in Israel; He shall stand firm and shepherd His flock and his greatness shall reach the ends of the earth.; He shall be peace.

What joy we have as Christians this Advent as we celebrate the coming of Jesus into the world knowing our God loves us so much. And what awe and joy we feel as we consider the bravery of Mary, a poor insignificant young woman, who “believed that what by the Lord would be fulfilled” and said YES to carrying our Lord despite the great danger this could have brought upon her. As Christians, we are called to rethink the notion of significance and count all of life as being of immense value. All life has its origin in God, the loving Creator, who is present in all things making them of great value. May we learn to see ourselves in relation to God, and His creation.

Pope Francis wrote in Laudato Si'; “Our insistence that each human being is an image of God should not make us overlook the fact that each creature has its own purpose. None is superfluous. The entire material universe speaks of God’s love, his boundless affection for us. Soil, water, mountains, everything, as it were, a caress of God. (84) When we can see God reflected in all that exists, our hearts are moved to praise the Lord for all his creatures and to worship him in union with them. (87)”. If we are careless with God's creation our praise for Him is muted.

We celebrated this season of Advent together during the fair 2 weeks ago. Let us rejoice in God's great love for us and in the beautiful, caring, and lively St. Raymond community we are blessed to be a part of. In love for one another, may we be moved to respect and protect all life as a reflection of gratitude for God in our midst.

VISION STATEMENT St. Raymond Parish is a family. As disciples of Jesus, we are “children of God” and “brothers and sisters in Christ.” Jesus himself says, “Whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother, and sister, and mother” (Matthew 12:50). We welcome all to belong to our Catholic family and to inherit with us in Christ the mission to preach the Gospel as we pray-serve-socialize in His Name.

MISSION STATEMENT St. Raymond Parish is a community united by our Catholic Faith as disciples of Jesus Christ. We seek communion with God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit through ongoing personal and communal conversion to Christ and a deeper commitment to the mission Jesus gives each of us to preach the Gospel. The sacred scriptures and sacraments of the Church sustain us. We dedicate ourselves to Truth and strive to grow in love of God and neighbor as we pray-serve-socialize together, and work by grace to build up in one another and share freely with others the abundance of magnificent gifts God has given.
