SUMMER BIBLE STUDY – GOSPEL OF JOHN IN 4 SESSIONS

Join Fr. Jerome and Fr. John this summer for a 4-session Bible study of the Gospel of John. We will be using Follow Me: Meeting Jesus in the Gospel of John to guide our study. The Follow Me Study Set can be ordered from <https://ascensionpress.com/collections/follow-me-meeting-jesus-in-the-gospel-of-john> for $24.95 and includes a physical book and digital access to all materials, including 8 session videos.

We will meet Tuesday evenings at 7pm every other week on July 19, August 2, 16, and 30, covering 2 sessions per meeting. To prepare for the first session on July 19, please read Chapters 1 & 2 of the Gospel of John, up to page 22 in the workbook, and watch the online videos for Sessions 1 & 2. Join us for some summer faith-building discussions on the Gospel of John!

CONTEMPLATIVE PRAYER IN THE CATHOLIC SPIRITUAL TRADITION

TUESDAY, JULY 26 @ 7 PM IN CHURCH

Is it possible to live at the pace of prayer in our post-modern milieu? St. Elisabeth of the Trinity, a Carmelite mystic at the dawn of the 20th Century, believed that God's abiding presence should be at the center of everyone's life, including parents and families. To this end, she proposed to her sister, a young mother, a way of life rooted in contemplative prayer. This presentation describes this kind of prayer and how to live it drawing from the same Biblical sources that she used.

Dr. Anthony Lilles is a professor of theology at St. Patrick's Seminary and University in Menlo Park. Teaching spiritual theology for over twenty-five years in Denver and Los Angeles, he is an expert in Carmelite mysticism who studied at Franciscan University in Steubenville, Ohio, completing his graduate and post graduate work at the University of St. Thomas in Rome. He podcasts at DiscerningHearts.com and his meditations are published at SpiritualDirection.com. There will be a potluck before the Speaker Series—details below.

Saint of the Week

ST. CAMILLUS DE LELLIS, PRIEST (JULY 18)

Humanly speaking, Camillus was not a likely candidate for sainthood. His mother died when he was a child, his father neglected him, and he grew up with an excessive love for gambling. At 17, he was afflicted with a disease of his leg that remained with him for life. In Rome he entered the San Giacomo Hospital for Incurables as both patient and servant, but was dismissed for quarrelsomeness after nine months. He served in the Venetian army for three years.

Then in the winter of 1574, when he was 24, Camillus gambled away everything he had—savings, weapons, literally down to his shirt. He accepted work at the Capuchin friary at Manfredonia, and was one day so moved by a sermon of the superior that he began a conversion that changed his life. He entered the Capuchin novitiate, but was dismissed because of the apparently incurable sore on his leg. After another stint of service at San Giacomo, he came back to the Capuchins, only to be dismissed again, for the same reason.

Again, back at San Giacomo, his dedication was rewarded by his being made superintendent. Camillus devoted the rest of his life to the care of the sick. Along with Saint John of God he has been named patron of hospitals, nurses, and the sick. With the advice of his friend Saint Philip Neri, he studied for the priesthood and was ordained at the age of 34. Contrary to the advice of his friend, Camillus left San Giacomo and founded a congregation of his own. As superior, he devoted much of his own time to the care of the sick.

Charity was his first concern, but the physical aspects of the hospital also received his diligent attention. Camillus insisted on cleanliness and the technical competence of those who served the sick. The members of his community bound themselves to serve prisoners and persons infected by the plague as well as those dying in private homes. Some of his men were with troops fighting in Hungary and Croatia in 1595, forming the first recorded military field ambulance. In Naples, he and his men went onto the galleys that had plague and were not allowed to land. He discovered that there were people being buried alive, and ordered his brothers to continue the prayers for the dying 15 minutes after apparent death.

Camillus himself suffered the disease of his leg through his life. In his last illness, he left his own bed to see if other patients in the hospital needed help.

Rest In Peace

With heavy hearts, we announce the passing of

Ethel Schaaf

Kathy Jobin

(mother of Amy Jobin)

Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and all the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

We also pray for those recently deceased including Leonore Daschbach, Ethel Schaaf, Jean Ashley, Bernice Corcoran, Bob Ford, and Puz Nelson.

To add a name to these lists, please contact the Parish Office.

MEMORIAL MASS FOR JEAN ASHLEY

Tue., July 26, 2022, 10:30 am, St. Raymond

Do you love spending time on the beach?

Birds like threatened snowy plovers and brown pelicans can be found on our coasts this summer, nesting and resting on our beaches.

Whether you love the beach for sunbathing, boogie-boarding, walking your dog, fishing, kayaking, or boating, you can be a bird-friendly beachgoer with 4 easy steps:

1. Keep dogs on leash or visit a dog-friendly beach.
2. Give shorebirds and seabirds at least 100 feet of space—that's the equivalent of 16 beach towels. Respect fences and signs and stay out of areas that are roped off for breeding birds.
3. Remove trash, especially plastic, and food scraps, which attract animals that might eat shorebirds' eggs and/or chicks.
4. Avoid use of loud or large flying things that shorebirds and seabirds perceive as predators such as drones, fireworks, balloons, and kites.

We hope you grab some binoculars and enjoy watching coastal birds while respecting and protecting their habitat.

The birds of the sky nest by the waters; they sing among the branches.

How many are your works, Lord!

*In wisdom you made them all;
the earth is full of your creatures.*

*There is the sea, vast and spacious,
teeming with creatures beyond number—living things both large and small.*

All creatures look to you to give them their food at the proper time.

*When you give it to them,
they gather it up;*

*when you open your hand,
they are satisfied with good things.*

*When you send your Spirit,
they are created,
and you renew the face of the earth.*

(Psalm 104:12, 24-25, 27-28, 30)

Listed as endangered in 1970, the species rebounded after the DDT ban, enough to be removed from the endangered species list in 2009. Still, oil spills threaten the waterproofing of their feathers, and plastic refuse in the oceans causes a major threat of starvation. Let us continue to be vigilant in our stewardship of their habitats.

VISION STATEMENT St. Raymond Parish is a family. As disciples of Jesus, we are “children of God” and “brothers and sisters in Christ.” Jesus himself says, “Whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother, and sister, and mother” (Matthew 12:50). We welcome all to belong to our Catholic family and to inherit with us in Christ the mission to preach the Gospel as we pray-serve-socialize in His Name.

MISSION STATEMENT St. Raymond Parish is a community united by our Catholic Faith as disciples of Jesus Christ. We seek communion with God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit through ongoing personal and communal conversion to Christ and a deeper commitment to the mission Jesus gives each of us to preach the Gospel. The sacred scriptures and sacraments of the Church sustain us. We dedicate ourselves to Truth and strive to grow in love of God and neighbor as we pray-serve-socialize together, and work by grace to build up in one another and share freely with others the abundance of magnificent gifts God has given.
